You may nominate any Briarcliffe College graduate including yourself, and current faculty with at least 5 years service.*

Specify award:

Distinguished Alumni Award

This award is presented to graduates who have achieved personal and professional success. Examples of these successes would include becoming a business-owner, manager, or supervisor; having completed a high level of additional training or education; becoming a leader in organizations. They are a shining example of alumni achievement and should be a source of pride to Briarcliffe students and alumni.

Outstanding Alumni Service Award

This award recognizes a graduate that has contributed his or her personal time and talents in service to a community organization or other good cause. Examples of this would include volunteer work for organizations such as hospitals, schools, civic organizations, youth programs, etc. This award may also be given to alumni who have aided Briarcliffe College, its alumni association or students. Their dedication and commitment in support of an important cause sets an example for others to follow and is a reflection of the mission of the Briarcliffe College Alumni Association.

Alumni Faculty Recognition Award

This award is given by the alumni association to Briarcliffe College faculty members who have been supportive to students and/or alumni. They should display commitment to their field and to their students. In order to be considered for this award, the faculty member must have a minimum of five years of service to the school.
